

Archangel Michael Prayer

Archangel Michael,

I ask that you guide me in protecting my soul as I am a light being from the divine source of love and light. Radiate your healing love throughout my soul and surround me with a golden light which dissolves all things which do not align with my path.

I welcome you to assist me in times of need, protect me throughout my day, bring me peaceful restorative sleep at night, and open my heart to healing messages which I need along my journey. I trust that when you walk beside me, your strength lights the path for my soul, and I too find the inner strength and courage to live from my highest good.

I know that I can call on you when I am feeling lost, when I need encouragement, and when I need divine guidance. Connect me to your willpower so that I may stand strong and proud in my trust and my faith.

With your guidance, I embrace change and transformation, and I stay present in each moment aware of your divine wisdom. Release me from anything that does not serve my soul and replace it with your protective light. I gratefully carry my light into the world to shine.

Thank You. Love and Light.

Pam Barosh
